

US MINT STANDS UP FOR DISABLED VETS

The United States Mint is currently issuing silver one-dollar coins to honor disabled American veterans. The American Veterans Disabled for Life Commemorative Coin Act authorizes the United States Mint to mint 350,000 such coins. Surcharges earned by sale of the coins are helping to fund the planned American Veterans Disabled For Life Memorial in Washington DC.

The coin's obverse (heads side) was designed of the Memorial. The Memorial will be the which pays tribute to the service and sacri-Trust, 2010" and "Liberty."

the Mint's Artistic Infusion Program Master Sculptor-Engraver Joseph Menna. Here, the design depicts a forget-me-not flower at the base of a wreath wrapped in a ribbon that cra- An introductory coin sales period, in which dles and supports clusters of oak branches. special pricing for proof and uncirculated The oak branches represent strength, while the forget-me-not is a widely accepted symbol of remembrance for those who sacrificed options include proof and uncirculated vertheir lives for our country. The inscriptions include "Take This Moment To Honor our Disabled Defenders of Freedom."

As noted above, surcharges from the sale will go directly to the Disabled Veterans' Life Memorial Foundation, the organization raising the private funds for the construction and sculpted by United States Mint Sculptor- first in the capital area dedicated to living Engraver Don Everhart. The design features disabled veterans across all service branches the legs and boots of three disabled veterans, and all areas of conflict. Commanding an impressive two-acre site between Washington fice of our disabled veterans. The inscription Avenue SW, C Street SW and Second Street "They Stood Up For Us" is in the banner SW, the memorial will be within full view of along the coin's upper rim. Additional in- the U.S. Capitol, adjacent to the National scriptions on the obverse are "In Good We Mall, and across from Independence Avenue and the United States Botanic Garden. The monument was sponsored in 2000 by Sen-The coin's reverse (tails side) is the work of ator John McCain, former Senator Max Cleland, and Representatives Sam Jonson and Designer Thomas Cleveland and sculpted by the late John Murtha. President Bill Clinton signed it into law soon thereafter.

> versions of the coin, ends on March 29. After that, regular pricing will be in effect. Available sions of the coin, struck in 90 percent silver.

> Coins can be purchased at www.usmint.gov/ catalog or 1-800-USA-MINT

SEE AN INTERVIEW WITH THE MEMORIAL'S NATIONAL SPOKESPERSON GARY SINISE